Dor Dor.

How special was our friendship:? "I cannot count the ways." Remember the day a stranger came up to us at Schnitz where we were having lunch." She said to us "you two have so much fun. What do you laugh about?

You are always in my thoughts.

I miss you!

Doris and Bill Wuchner had many friends and touched many lives in Jasper! They shared many good times, trips in the trailers, and meals together with my parents, Anne and Tom Gootee. Mom has many wonderful memories of her best friend Doris. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Jane and John!

Dear Family,
Please accept our gratitude while celebrating Doris' life. We smile as we remember such a beautiful, faithful, fun-loving Christian friend who's positive attitude always warmed your day. Doris leaves our world better for sharing God's ways of patience, kindness, courage, and joy. We'll miss her; yet we're grateful knowing we'll be reunited in our heavenly home....
Love & Blessings to you,
