I'll never forget Aunt Janice and Aunt Laura dancing on top of speakers at my wedding. It reminds me of the Addicted to Love video by Robert Palmer. She was so full of life.

I can remember Janice cooking during our annual campout. She always had her hands in the cooking, very busy making sure the dinner was delicious. My memories of Janice are integral of my memories of my big family. It's hard to imagine family get togethers without her. She will forever be in my memories that I treasure deeply. I miss you Aunt Janice already, give my love to Grandma.

Janice loved landscaping. Her & my sister. Rita did my yard when we built our first house. Janice was meticulous in where to place each shrub. She directed the job and Rita did the hard labor of planting. Janice was a perfectionist in her planting designs. Each shrub had to be moved 3 times before she was satisfied. She told me unless it was moved that many times, it wouldn't live. Every morning for the next week or so, I would wake up and see her out in the landscaping area with a cup of coffee making sure I was keeping it watered & looking over the the job to see if anything may still need to be moved to a more perfect spot. They did a fantastic job and I treasure that memory of her. Rest easy Janice, I love you. Linda
