Comments

“ I saw the family today at the funeral but did not get to tell them this. Having had a prior obligation I was late attending a concert at Barbara's church one evening. I stood in the doorway to the auditorium, and the place was packed. I was thinking about attempting to make my way up front to sit with some friends of mine when I saw Barbara coming toward me. She and her family and friends were sitting nearly in the middle of the room, and she came a long way, walked up to me, and asked me to join them all. When I got to the table I knew some of her friends as well, so I had a comfortable and enjoyable time. That little thing may sound silly to some people, but being alone that evening it meant so much to me for her to do that. She was a vibrant, caring lady!

“ Barbara had a beautiful Alto voice. I always tried to sit close to her in choir so I could hear her sing. Will miss her greeting on Sunday mornings and sharing our dog stories.

“ Barb was such a nice and sweet lady. Years ago when I came to Shiloh Barb was the first person to greet and welcome me to church. It meant so much to me. She will surely be missed.

“ I had known Barb for ages but had only in the past few months actually gotten to know her. What a blessing she has been to so many! She will truly be missed by not only her family, but by her church family as well.
