“ Deepest Sympathies to the entire Brandt Family
Yes a beautiful lady inside & out. Always a positive happy smiling young lady. Spoke nothing but kind words. Obviously knew her as I was growing up in the neighborhood. I always said there goes that lady walking again walking down Jackson Street. Then I got to know her as one of my JHS Basketball Coaches & spent many of times with her at her desk. I know every student that walked down that hallway she always smiled & waved at. And if your going to say anything negative it's going to be on the basketball court. Nope not Coach Brandt. Nothing but positive. I've learned a lot from her on how to treat & respect people. She'll be missed by many. I remember when she lost her husband Jack back in 1989. We cried, laughed, & smiled together. I recall saying there will be a time when you two loved birds will be reunited. Jack will welcome that same beautiful lovely bride of his he married to the Heavens above. 30 years later Jack here is your lovely bride Joyce with that same smile. Rest in Peace Both of You!!

Sending prayers your way. We just loved your Mom up at JHS. She always was so helpful and after she retired, I always loved catching up with her as she walked her dog on the square. She touched so many lives and was always so positive. Rest in Peace

“ Joyce Brandt was one of the most kind and caring individuals I've ever met. In high school (1987-91), I frequently went to the office just to visit with her. She always brightened up my day with that beaming smile. When I lived on her same street for a time after college, she invited me over for meals. Today in hearing of her passing, I am sad. But moreover, I'm happy to be reminded of a friend who I'm sure meant so much to the thousands of people whose lives she has touched in a positive way. Her loving nature was truly a model for us all.

My condolences and best to her family,
