“ I was always so glad to see Lee Ray. He knew how to be a friend you could trust. Some of his work is still passing gas on the pipeline, I am sure. I came from Omaha, Nebraska and found a true friend in Lee. Lee would be the first to offer to leave a field site and go get lunch. He knew where the best food to-go was. I remember his tales of working on his roof. I have missed working with you Lee for the last few years. Now I hope to see you again in the light. Your friend.

“ I spent half my life with Dad. He was always a great positive influence on me and everyone. I have so many memories with him. I just wish I took the time too have so many more. Our plans for the house, Hummer and so much more will be completed dad. I promised you I would finish them for you and I will. My heart might ache and be broken but knowing your now with grandma, grandpa, mom and so many others all I can say is save me a place at the table. And I can't wait to taste your great cooking and everyone's love. RIP DAD. I will love you always!

“ Lee is a great guy! I worked with Lee until his retirement. During a company transition, Lee had to stay in the Joliet, IL area for a couple of weeks. I asked him what he was doing during the weekend and he said nothing. He asked me what I was doing. I said that I was building a landscape wall in my backyard. I asked if he wanted to come over and help. He immediately said yes. Lee and I spent the weekend in the rain building my wall. Lee and I had a great time and the wall is still staying tall. Thanks again Lee. Rest in peace. Steve

“ Our memories of Lee Ray are how wonderfully supportive of Denise he was over the years. He had such a big heart and great affection for his family. His genuinely fun country wit, livened up family get togethers. We will miss him greatly.
