“ Luther was a wonderful neighbor. He always had a kind word. We always looked forward to the visit in mid summer when he would bring sweet corn to make up for “smelling up the neighborhood” when he fertilized the fields. Our girls loved to stand outside and watch him work in the field next to our house. No matter how many rounds he made when they were out there, he had a big wave and a smile each time. Years ago he stopped the combine and picked up the oldest to ride with him for a while. To this day, she mentions it from time to time. He will be missed by many.
