“ You had the brightest smile, a great sense of humor, and you could make anything fun. I took you as my husband in sickness and in health, until death. While we had some very rough times together, I will always cherish the good years that we shared. I will think of you whenever I hear that song, Too Much Fun, and I will never forget you getting out of that traffic ticket because the cop didn't have time for your shit- and he told you so! You will always be in my heart. Love you, always and forever.
