“ Agnes Lueken.....what a sweet lady and great neighbor we all got to know on Plymouth Street. She was a classmate of Mom's, a fellow-resident at St. Charles with Mom, and showed a twinkle in her eyes when she smiled as we visited her. I'm sure the Holy Family Church Quilters and Parishioners have missed her for some time now! I know the Albertina Marks Family will surely miss her, as she is now in peace with the Angels.

“ When I think about family gatherings back in my childhood, I remember Aunt Agnes as always being kind and always having a smile on her face. She had a long life, but it's still hard to lose your mother. I wish I had known about her death earlier and been able to attend her funeral. My husband read the obituary in the online edition of the Herald last night. All of you will be in my prayers and thoughts. I will have a Mass said for Aunt Agnes at our church here.
