“ I met Alene when we became classmates in the first 1st-grade class at Holy Family school. Although we've lost touch over the years, I remember her as a kind and happy soul. Deepest condolences to her family and friends. May she rest in peace.

“ Alene and I were the best of friends. During her years of a single woman, she and I attended many of the different dances on Saturday night. I moved away, then Larry came along. She and I work together at the Jasper wood products for 5 years. Going to work was a fun time with everyone in our department. She later transferred across the street to Jovco, where two of her brothers worked. I think it was Kenny and Harold.

Each time we got together on my home visits, she loved to reminisce of the good old days, and talk about her two beautiful children that she adored.

While she was still living at home, I remember going to her house on many Sundays. Her mother was a great woman that could cook up a storm. She and her mother loved sitting out on the porch swing. Being the only girl in the family, the boys kept a close watch on her.

She and Larry had a great life together.

After Larry passed suddenly, her life took a downward turn.

May she rest in peace now.

Love to you, Alene
