“ Doug, Sarah, Brian, Scott, Myra and Wayne, We're so sorry to hear of your Dad's/Grandpa's death. From the little we knew him, we're assured as we're sure you are, that he is resting well with his Heavenly Father and so glad to see your Mother again! We just returned from Ohio this evening from a visit to Gail's Mother, and regret that we will not be there to give you comforting hugs and appreciate that others will. We will continue to pray for your peace and comfort! Love in Christ, Gail and Glenn

“ Dear Myra and Wayne, We are sorry to hear of the death of Wayne's father. You both have had more than your share of grief in the past few years. You have been on my mind for the past week and I had intended to write or call. Please check your e-mail later in the week. Our deepest sympathy, With love, Paula and Irving
