“ My prayers and condolences to the Niehaus family. I knew Alice as my mother's childhood neighbor and as a daunting presence playing first base during our seasons on the Jasper Women's City Softball League. Later in years, my encounters with Alice and Joe out on the road or the River Walk were always joyful. Alice "Big A" Niehaus delighted everyone around her with her friendly smile, her competitive nature, and her uplifting spirit. Best wishes, Theresa Singer

“ I can still remember Alice waiting on our porch for her ride to the Gutgsell strawberry farm when she was a teenager and we were neighbors in “little Kentucky”, as it was sometimes called back then.....a fun gal who enjoyed life and loved to talk! You will be missed, Alice.
Glad we got to dance together at the last Brookstone Christmas Party! Now you will be dancing with angels!
