“ To the family of Amanda Rees, I am truly sorry for your loss of Amanda. I have no doubt that she fought a good fight until the very end. She was a beautiful person that was taken too young. Amanda and I talked a lot about where we were in our treatment process and saw several of the same doctors. I pray that God comforts all of you in this difficult time. You all have a beautiful angel smiling down on you everyday.

“ Aaron,
May God wrap you all in His loving arms. May He give you His peace. May you find strength in Him. Know that people love you and are praying for you. He alone is the beginning and the end. Put your trust in Him. I don't pretend to understand the why of things, but I know He is with me and has been thru every difficulty. God keep you in His righteous right hand.
