“ I have been out of town and did not see this until today. We were church friends and I always smiled when I saw him! What a gentle soul. Peace to his family in their loss.

“ When I was young I use to go to his house and hang out with Terry. He would take us to the feed mill and we would play while he would work. As I got older And moved to Alabama I didn't see him quite as much but when I would go it was like we had never been apart. He would get me up early and ride around and he would take me to breakfast. I will miss him greatly. Rest in piece uncle Andy. Love Scott McDaniel.

“ I met Andy in the summer of 2007. His first words to me were " what are you doing with this guy, honey?" He always treated me well and with kindness and generosity. After leaving Jasper, one of the things I missed was seeing Andy coming up the walk with his cigar ready to sit down for a visit. He embraced me and included us in family gatherings, dinners and even reunions as did his family. He was indeed one of a kind who lived a long, colorful and interesting life. Rest in peace, Andy
