“ Some of my fondest memories growing up on east 8th street included Mrs. Rupprecht. Her girls were my first best friends and I spent a lot of time at their house. She used to give me rides home from school when it rained. She was always nice to me, even when she didn't have to be. I have been thinking of her a lot lately. Rest in peace, Anna Mae. My condolences to Patty and the rest of her family.
