“ Ardella was a lifelong friend. She was the perfect example of humility and charity to so many. She was also incredibly talented as a seamstress and homemaker. What an amazing roll model to all of us to be humble and kind. Nancy and family as much as you are hurting now, we hope you also celebrate what a great life lived. Now you have an Angel shining down. And she and Urban can be together again. Sending love and hugs and there with you in spirit.

Ardella was one of the sweetest ladies I ever had the privilege of knowing! I had the pleasure of calling her for over 20 years with prayer requests through the St. Joseph Prayer Line Ministry. Our conversations became ones I looked forward to. She always offered words of wisdom and faith, and each conversation ended with, “and take care of yourself Nancy!” May Ardella rest in peace!

Ardella was the softest and kindest lady I have ever met. We were Eucharistic ministers together at the Timbers for many years. We also visited together on her rocking chairs on her front porch. She is a gift to all of us. I am sorry for your loss and celebrate a full life for Ardella .. Now she is with Jesus and Urban again.

My mom and dad and I lived upstairs when I was a baby, so I don't remember that, but later on, whenever she saw us, she was also so kind and friendly! I will always remember what a sweet, soft spoken lady she was! So sorry for your loss!

First met Ardella as a seamstress for a couple dresses for my daughters. Her daughter Becky was in my class. We talked of her often as later in life before Covid I picked her up every month for Grandmothers Club We sat and talked after every meeting. She also visited my mom when she was in the nursing home there. Such a kind lady.
