“ Christine, I have been watching my Facebook daily. Please accept my most sincere sympathy. You and I both know where your mom is now, somewhere way better than here, I am envious. You will see her again someday, be comforted in knowing she is with our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ. Hallelujah! What a glorious day that will be! Now you can rejoice and celebrate, for you know where she has gone to. Please take care, you were the most diligent, loyal, loving, caring daughter, I admire you for that. Always there taking care of her, it was evident how much you loved and adored her. I will see you when I get home next week. I wish I could be there for you, however I know how many people love you, you will not be alone. Take care and God Bless you and your family, In Christ's love, your sister in Christ, Melody
