“ This is a memory I have of your mother, father and Abigail. My husband and I were at a Jasper football game to watch our son, Andy Wickman play. It may have been Adam who also played? It was freezing cold, and we were packed like sardines in the stands. We sat directly in front of your parents, and Abigail. Abigail was full force, cheering. However she was so loud that I remember that experience clearly. What a voice! And it makes me laugh now.

Bethie and I were roommates in nursing school at I U. She was the only friend I took home to my family in New Jersey when I was in college. We reconnected when our kids were little and she loaned me her maternity clothes when I moved to Santa Claus Indiana. We have always kept up through our xmas cards for over 50 years. I think I was always calling her Bethie and she always called me Ronnie. Made us feel young. So sorry for your loss. Ronnie Philbin Brooks

“ Dr. Drew and I have so many fond memories of Beth and Phil while we were raising our children together in Jasper. Beth's children swim on the J.A.W.S. swim team with our 4 boys for many years. Beth was a great mother, wife and friend. She will be missed by many.

May she Rest In Peace alongside Phil.

May God Bless her family during this trying time of mourning.
