“ Mike, Mark, Marsha and Mary, my prayers and thoughts are with you all. Losing a loving parent can be so difficult. Just remember, your mom is now face to face with the Lord Jesus and she is full of joy. I will miss Aunt Betty, but I will hang on to loving memories of her that will stay with me forever.

“ Mrs. Betty and Mr. Earl were our neighbors on Main Street during our time there in late 2003 to summer 2015. Betty was always so sweet to our children and my wife, Shannon, often inviting them into her home and treating them with such grace and kindness. Even though we haven't lived next door in some time, I will always remember Mrs. Betty with fondness. May she rest in peace in the presence of Jesus.
