“ My sincere condolences to her families. My thoughts and prayers will be with you at this most difficult time. I am certain Betty would point us to our loving Lord and Savior for His endearing comfort. I will light a candle for you, Betty.

Betty was a kind, caring, generous, very sweet and endearing lady that always had a smile and kind word for everyone. It was my distinct pleasure and privilege to be blessed by having her as a dear friend for many years. Although we never met in person, she always exhibited acceptance, love and kindness, making one feel a part of her family and welcome at any time day or night. Her posts were always uplifting, interesting and exhibited love for all of God's children and animals. She reflected our Lord's love and exemplified Proverbs 31.

And boy, did she ever love Randy Travis! I believe she would have adopted him in a heartbeat and she always looked over him like only a loving mother could. Her love and enthusiasm for him and all his endeavors never failed or paled. I remember her excitement prior and enthusiasm after meeting him several times at Little Nashville and the Strawberry Festival. He never had a more enthusiastic and loving fan.

Betty will be truly missed and we all share your pain. Someday, Betty will be one of the first people I look for when I get to Heaven. What a joyous event that will be and unending rejoicing that will take place! Thank you for sharing her with me!

“ Fresh frozen strawberries at Jasper lake cabin. As a young girl I loved going to Jasper and the cabin. Using the outhouse was scary and crazy cool. Some of best memories of Homer Jones and Uncle Gene and Aunt Betty happened at Jasper lake. The Matriarch of the Jones Family will truly be missed.

“ Betty touched my life in a way that no one else ever has. She was the most accepting, loving and funny woman I have ever known. She taught me how to laugh at myself, and that no matter how old you are it's always better to be silly and have fun than stress out and be sad. Thank you, Betty for teaching me these and so many other life lessons. Thank you for being a perfect Godmother and friend to my daughter, Eve. And thanks for all of the laughter. I love and will miss you dearly. - April King
