812-482-4141 Dateline Jasper, Indiana Betty J. Brown, age 87 of Jasper, Indiana, passed away at 6:23 p.m. on Wednesday (September 17, 2014) at home. Betty Jean (Peak) Brown was born in Indianapolis on June 27, 1927 to Harry and Gladys (Whaley) Peak. She was raised, however, at her uncle's farm in Bretzville, Indiana. She graduated from Jasper High School in 1945, and married Clarence R "Brownie" Brown on April 8, 1948 in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church (now United Church of Christ) in Jasper. Her husband preceded her in death on December 20, 2012 after 64 years of marriage. Mrs. Brown worked at the Television Center in Jasper, and retired from OB/GYN Associates in 2010 at the age of 83! She was a member of Trinity United Church of Christ in Jasper. Most importantly, she was a wonderful mother and grandmother. Her hobbies included mushroom hunting and playing cards with friends. She will not only be missed by her family, but also by her friends Jack and June Astrike and her best friend since eighth grade, Mrs Edwin (Margie) Schneider. Surviving,

“ Marvin, Misty and family.

We are so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. She was obviously a great person that loved her family, community and church. All the best as you deal with her passing.

“ I was so sad to hear about the loss of great Aunt Betty. But my heart mostly went out to you, her children. I know what it is like to lose a parent and now you have lost both. I don't have many memories of being with Betty and Brownie, but the ones I recall are pleasant and happy. Please know that my prayers and sympathy are with you as we grieve the loss of a dear lady that we loved. I know she was special to my Dad (David Arnold.)

“ Our visits back to Indiana each summer to see my sister, Margie Schneider will not be the same. When we came to Jasper in our motor home, it was not uncommon to come home and see fresh vegetables on the steps. Then there were games of Blitz and visits to French Lick You were always on her mind and she updated us each year on our visits to Jasper. Your parents were wonderful people and will be missed.

“ Terry & Betty, I have very fond memories of your mother, and in particular, her consistent smile and wonderful, caring personality. She and Clarence were such fine examples of the true value of life: love, caring, and sharing.
