“ Bev was one of a kind. Friends who may not have seen each other for years, but when we did get together, it was like we had just seen each other yesterday. When my mom was sick she would visit, because I lived out of town. She would keep me up to date on what was going on in Dubois county and one a year a group of us from UE would get together for lunch. She will be missed! Gwen Barnett

“ Bev has always been one of the greatest assets and support to me personally and to our Community. Her sports, history and genealogy knowledge and contributions have been immeasurable. Our personal private conversations and public local Jasper Facebook Group collaborations have helped create an online environment for everyone to be exposed to and appreciate the history of Dubois County. She has been one of my dearest beloved friends. She was an invaluable researcher and resource. A genuine and good person. She was a friend to many and made a difference in many lives. She will be missed and remembered.

“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Alles family. Bev was such a thoughtful and caring person that went out of her way to be present in her family's life, coworkers, former students, and friends. I know she sacrificed a lot to be a great caregiver to both of your parents. I will greatly miss her posts on Facebook and our chats reminiscing about the Vine/Dewey Street days. May Bev enjoy eternal rest with all her loved ones. I will continue to pray for all of you!

“ Bev was an icon. I am heartbroken to hear of her passing. We have kept in touch since ADV HOSA. She was an incredible mentor, nurse, educator, and friend. She still teased me about all of my nerdy color coding pens that I lined up on my desk. I am grateful for the many laughs and lessons. Peace and love to her family and friends, she was beloved and will be missed!

“ Bev was a 1965 classmate. We lost touch for a long but reconnected a couple of years ago through social media and the last big class reunion. I will miss Facebook messenger discussions about politics and education initiatives. Rest in peace, Bev.

“ I met Bev in the fall of 1965 at Evansville College then. What a wonderful friend to have for sixty years. It will be hard that she won't be at our annual get together this July. She made us promise that we would still meet even if she wasn't able to be with us. Prayers to the entire family!! Jane “ Bev was such a force of nature. It's hard to believe she's passed. We became acquaintances and friends from those Birch Bayh days and then crossed paths even more frequently at ISTA and local teacher association events. She was such a knowledgeable and accomplished advocate for all those she cared about - her students and colleagues, her family, her community, and the Democratic Party and its candidates. She leaves such large shoes to fill and an even larger hole in my heart.

My condolences and heartfelt sympathy goes to all of you in her family. Thank you for sharing Bev with all the rest of us. You are in my prayers.

The first 3-1/2 years her dad was mayor I was his secretary. Those were fun days. But Jerry and I went back much further than that; he worked with her mom, dear Annie, from the fall of 1967 to early 1983. From having seven kids to an insatiable love of baseball and a good political fight, we were very similar families. Lots of pride, lots of love, lots of laughs. It looks like the party is going on without me, but I still have the memories. God bless and keep you forever, Bev. Tell everybody hello for me.
