“ Bryant was married to my niece Chelsea, but he was my “nephew”. I loved him very much. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him. I knew he was the one for Chelsea when I saw how he made her laugh. Laughter was her love language. He cared for her through years of battling cancer, but was always there for her with a smile. I was very thankful to him for that. Chelsea and Bryant brought out the best in one another and then they blessed us with Harper. What a gift she is. My heart will forever miss Bryant, but my heart has a little peace knowing he and Chelsea are together again and Harper will always have them watching over her. I’m praying for all who loved him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I met him once when I came to visit my dad. He got my luggage out of the trunk and brought it in the home. I didn't even ask him. He was a very cute and friendly guy.

“ I worked with Bryant at Indiana Furniture. We all use to call him Pup. He was like a little brother to me. He would always come over in my area and start randomly singing. He was the absolute best person ever.
