“ Carma was a true mentor as a great teacher. My daughter, Jody had her in her 4th grade class and shared with us after that year she wanted to be a teacher just like Mrs. Thimling. Jody not only became a teacher , but became a Principal. Thank you, Carma for being an amazing influence on all your children that you taught❤️

“ Carma was a life saver for my son in 4th grade. Due to her, he excelled in every subject that year. He was sad that she retired the year before his niece had the chance to have her as a teacher. He will be so upset that she passed. I pray that she can watch over him in her new heavenly home.

“ Carma knew I was struggling with my daughter's travel to Europe for a semester. I will never forget the special miraculous medal she gave my daughter before she left. That brought me so much comfort. My daughter was able to bring it back to her safely. Carma loved her family and her students dearly. She's going to bring a lot of laughs and joy to heaven. Godspeed my dear friend.

Our deepest sympathies go out to Carma's family! Our son Jacob had Carma for a teacher at 10th Street and it was his best year there. She was an amazing teacher with a beautiful heart that cared for each and every one of the kids in her class. Each one of them knew they were special because of her! Praying for healing as you move forward without your precious Mom and wife. Sincerely, Susan, Tim and Jacob Barry
