“ *Cheryl & Family,
My heartfelt sympathies go out to you. Your mother was a kind and gentle spirit. My mother treasured their friendship over the years especially while volunteering @ Memorial Hospital. It is my sincere hope that you will find strength, comfort and peace during this difficult time, and in the days ahead.*

“ To Carol's family with deepest Sympathy as we go along our remembrance of loved ones will be kept alive In our hearts. I knew Carol through the hospital auxiliary. I live on west 5th just north of Carol. We went to hospital teas and dinners. I don't drive , she always drove until her stroke. She was a very wonderful person.

“ Cheryl, my heartfelt sympathies go out to you and your family. Your mother was so sweet and wonderful! I still have the Christmas bell she gave me so many, many years ago. God needed a "special" angel in heaven and that's why he took her to be with him. I will keep you and your entire family in my thoughts and prayers. ❤️❤️
