“ Charlene and Faith at the Winslow, Indiana. Pike County Library had encouraged me to enter several poetry contests and I have several of my poems published now. I spent many days and hours writing and letting them proof read my poems to see what they had thought of them. Both ladies were very kind, loving, understanding, encouraging to me even during my time and loss of my husband in 2004. I will never forget all the precious time spent with them at the Winslow library. Charlene enjoy spending time with Jesus and reading to all the angels and everyone you see and know. God Bless You My Dear Friend!!!!
