“ I can still see Dick in our parent's driveway pulling his cotton candy machine as he was returning from a festival or activity. He always smiled and made sure that if we kids wanted cotton candy he would not leave until we had that treat. After serving all day he still had time for one or two more to see us smile and enjoy. A couple of years ago I was in town at mass at Precious Blood and ran into Dick. I introduced myself to him and watched that same smile come across his face. All of a sudden he had the energy of years past and had me come to his van because he thought he had something about my dad's business that I would enjoy as a memory. It was an old ad from the newspaper in Jasper. What a blessing that one sheet of paper was. Always wanting others to be happy. That is how I remember him. Rest in the peace of God, Dick.

“ Ruth Ann and Family, I'm sorry to read of Dick's passing. I had lost track of him. He and my uncle Binks were good friends back in the day. You probably remember me, being Agnes Apple's niece, Nancy's cousin. Mm mother Helen passed in 2005. Prayers and sympathy, Sarah Berger Humphrey Muncie IN

“ Our sincere sympathy to Dick's family. Dick was a very good friend of my dad's, Junie Bishop, and Dick would always take time to reminisce about those good ol' days with dad whenever we would meet on the streets of Jasper. I loved talking with him. He had so much energy and always a smile. I'll always have fond memories of Dick. God bless.
