“Doug ,Jeff , and Mike and all your families, My heart and prayers are with you all now at this time . Charlie and Clara Mae were wonderful people and so full of life. Our years growing up in "Skyline " and all the great memories will always be with us all . I can see all of our folks that have passed (and Tommy) sitting under Rod Brown's shade tree laughing and reminiscing the old days and the great times we all had being apart of that bigger family of Skyline . Rest in Peace Charlie ! Tell our loved ones hello and that we send our love ...

“ Doug, Jeff, and Mike: We are all so sorry to hear about Charlie's passing. We all grew up together in one of the most fun neighborhoods in Jasper. There are so many fond memories. I envision the ones who are all together are sitting in a big circle of lawn chairs visiting like they used to do on summer days when we were kids! You will all be in our prayers.

“ Doug, Jeff, and Mike (and spouses)

I am so sorry about Charlie's passing so soon after Clara Mae's, but they are home together again! And I heard a few times (and hope it is true) that once you pass, you become young again, around 33 years old, the age Jesus was when he was crucified.

So they are young and vibrant again, full of energy and laughing that signature Schulte laugh! (Although I think it was from Clara Mae's side, but I know Jeff and Mike have that laugh, too, whichever side it came from!!)

It hurts my heart that the older generation is almost gone now, but the memories that the Old Skyline neighborhood gave us all, will live on for a while yet!!
