As some people journey through life,they leave footprints wherever they go-footprints of kindness and love,courage and compassion,humor,and inspiration,joy and faith. Even when they are gone,we can still look back and clearly see the trail they left behind-a trail of hope that invites us to follow. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with his son, Luke and his family, and Chris’s entire family and friends. Chris was a great neighbor. He always had a smile when we would see him outside and talk with him. He would share interesting small stories with us and played with our Golden, Lexie. Jerry, I and Lexie will miss having him as a neighbor and friend. Rest in peace, Chris, with no more pain.

“ I didn't know Chris well but I knew I could call him if I needed something. He was a good neighbor which leads me to a time one winter when our snow remover was having trouble so with his blade and I guess Chris thought we needed help and when I looked out the window I saw Chris and a friend starting to shovel our driveway! I told Will and he went and told Chris that he did not have to shovel as we had someone coming. That's the caring neighbor he was. Prayers for him and his family! I will miss seeing him!
