“ My deepest sympathies to Chris's family and friends. So very sorry to hear about this loss. My high school classmate and my friend will be remembered for her infectious laugh, room brightening smile, and the classy beautiful person she was! I lost touch over the years but was always thrilled to see her at reunions and occasionally running into her. God Bless her and may she Rest In Peace.

“ So sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of Chris. Although we lost touch over the years, I will always remember her as a fun-loving person who was capable of brightening the days of those she encountered. With her beautiful smile and open heart, she had the unique ability to make others feel at ease in her presence. She is sure to be missed by all whose lives she graced, both past and present.
