“ We knew Miss Clara just a short while & that is all we needed to know she was a very thoughtful caring individual. Sorry we missed the visitation but we are the active kids sports coaches/officials which she loved talking to us about. And must we not forget GO IU & GO CARDS!! We have thought about Miss Clara many times. We wonder if when she felt down if she got the Cardinal Little League Lifting Your Spirits card signed by all the Redbirds our 2015 Season. I'll never forget the precious smile she had when we delivered it to her along with the Wendy's frostys. I wish would have made more time to visit her but we now know we have another REDBIRD watching over us.

“ I knew Clara for short time, and we became dear friends. She had opinions on everything, and the time went by so fast. I will miss her and remember her for a ling time. Donna and Ed Seal.

“ Dear Stenftenagel Family,
Clara Mae and I were the last 2 of 26 to be admitted to the convent in 1961 and that was our "rank" from then on. It's a little like being the last chosen for a team. We were the last 2 in line for all class ceremonies and we sat at the end of the dining hall next to one another. Clara Mae was full of life, always upbeat, and won the hearts of many because of her kind ways. I cherished our friendship and will miss Clara Mae.
