“ I loved my grandparents (mammaw and pappaw) both and I know that they loved me to there is not one bad thing I can say about them they had love and the love they had was the love of God and I am thankful for their love in my life as well as in the life of everybody who was apart of this relationship of family and I just wish I still had them. Death will come you never know when death is going to knock on your door. I have had 3 people in my family but I know that death I cannot control it God could have allowed him to live longer then he did God could have allowed my mammaw to live longer then she did God could have allowed my great aunt to live longer then she did but Gods will is Gods will I will miss you all my mammaw pappaw and my great aunt expecially to my mammaw and pappaw because I know them a whole lot better and a whole lot more then that of my great aunt not that I am not acknowledging her but I thank God for how he blessed me with them and I just thank God for he he kept all of them as long as he did Pappaw I love you and I hope and pray that one day I will see you in heaven see my mammaw in heaven and see my great aunt in heaven you i will miss all the people all 3 taken out of my life i miss and you will always be missed but not forgotten
