“ Bev and Brenda! Was sadden to learn of your mother's passing. I will treasure the many neighborhood memories of the families that lived on E 9th Street and the fun times we had as kids and how are parents enjoyed getting together themselves. Please know that I will be remembering all of your family members - living and deceased - as I attend Mass on Friday - the first Friday of the month. God bless! Sr. Judy Bell, FSM (I'll be sending a Mass donation to Bev for you to determine when and where you wish for it to be offered for your mom)

Phyllis Pfeffer Renneisen and I are deeply sorry for the passing of Connie. She had a wonderful and very long life. Phyllis and Judy remember the good times growing up on East Ninth Street where "street games" were commonplace and good times were had by all.

I am so saddened for the Werners and other family members to hear of Connie Pfeffer's passing. She was such a warm and kind person. I remember her as 'Grandma.' I know you will all miss her dearly.
