“ My thoughts and prayers to Crystal's family during this difficult time. She was a friend and co-worker of mine at Applebees. She called me her "Work Mom". I would be the one she would come to for advise, help, and a hug. My son was a classmate of hers as well. She would even come to him, as many others have, to talk about anything. My son is known for being a good listener and just showing he cares. He was a Natural Helper in High School which is a peer counselor. I seen her not too long ago and she seemed to be doing good. She loved her job at Kid City. She also mentioned that her and Courtney were well and that they love having her parents there with them. Crystal was always trying her best to be the hero in every situation! That's how big of a heart she had❤️ Her smile would brighten up the room! She will be missed dearly!!! God Bless
