“ *Theresa and Family
Dan was a great individual. He would always contact me at the station when something didn't air right. We had many conversations about Rush Limbaugh. He was a force in the Lions Club Radio Auction for many years. I always enjoyed bidding against him on certain items. He was my bell ringer and sat right next to me every night. I along with the rest of the community will miss him very much.*

“ Dan was born 11 days after me but always made a point of referring to me as his older cousin. We both grew up in Ireland, rode our bikes with other young boys around town, shot sparrows with bb guns and later tin cans with old 22 rifles. Though we saw each other occasionally over the years, it wasn't until we were both retired that he and T, visited us in Alabama on their way to Florida. I had told him that the sun shined brightly every day in Alabama and it very seldom ever snowed. Well, they arrived in the biggest snow we'd seen and he met me at my front door with a snowball and a grin! From then on I was known as his older cousin who lived in Alabama where it never snowed. His teasing humor and hearty laugh will be forever missed.

Dan drove from Jasper Indiana to our office in Owensboro Kentucky, then he, Brook White, and myself drove to Dallas overnight. We left Owensboro at 7PM and arrived in Dallas at 7AM! We drove in shifts.

Dan was a BIG Democrat. Brook and I--not so much! When we got to Little Rock Arkansas there was a sign, "Home of Bill Clinton Exit Right." Brook and I ribbed him about getting off to go visit his Mecca! Dan was driving and kept on going. On the way back I was driving. As we approached the exit I exited without slowing down at first. When I told him what I was doing he had this HUGH grin, like a school boy seeing his crush! He was sooooo excited.

We drove by Clinton's boyhood home, and I'm glad we did. It was a nothing-of-a-home as one could ever see. Single story, maybe three bedrooms, probably only one bath. Wood siding with a chain link fence. To go from something like that to the Whitehouse is no small feat.

“ I am so so sadden by the loss of this wonderful man. He was a great neighbor to me on Main Street and a dear friend that stood up for me and Gary when we got married. A caring, kind and generous man who could grow the most beautiful flowers, make the best steaks and was just a real sweetheart. I loved listening to him and Theresa bicker. I never knew which one was right but it didnt matter. Because in their mind, they both were. Love and miss you already.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Dan was a wonderful mentor to me, providing me with opportunities and advice that put me on a path in my career and in life. He exemplified what a Democrat and a caring person should be in all he did. I and many others have benefited from his lifelong service to his community, the impact of which continues. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
