“ Dearest Rose, family and friends of Dan, What a humble and honorable man! He will be so missed but kept in the heart, thoughts and prayers. Now he has his reward and has joined my dear husband, Joe, your daughter and grandchild as Joe has joined our beloved son, Gregg, & grandchild. Dan like Joe created and made beautiful things while woodworking! Joe often said, "that he felt the closest to God when working with wood". The loss and sorrow is profound! Now we have Saints Dan and Joe to continue to pray for us and be with us. I regret due to a knee injury I will not be able to personally be with you all.
Dear Rosie, Love, hugs and prayers. Prayers to all who are mourning.

“ Thank you, Dan & Rosie for Greg. He is my love and lifelong husband. I loved spending time with you. I will never forget when I put Cheezits in my upper lip like teeth and you told me “that’s illegal”. Or when I made you “giggle” when they tested you for COVID. You asked why they had to go up the other nostril and I told you “they didn’t find your brain on the first one”! I love you like my dad. Rest in peace, Dan! You deserve it.
