“I didn't spend a lot of time with Dave, but you didn't need to be around him long to know he was a truly good person. He was caring, always willing to help others, and had an incredible ability to make everyone laugh. I've heard countless stories of him and my brother Jim, and how they were always silly and laughing together. Now, they're reunited in heaven, sharing those same laughs and joy.

With deepest sympathy and love,

-Angie
