“ Her smile. She always had a kind word to say to all. Debbie was a true servant of God. Teaching Sunday School, chaperoning our youth at Youth Quake events, representing our church at Synod gatherings, faithful service on council, reading the lessons and just her day to day actions and encounters. We will miss you so much! Your example has encouraged all of us to be better servants. Thank you God for Debbie and we trust in your promise to comfort all who mourn.

“ Debbie was one of the best. She was so kind and always smiling. I always heard wonderful things from the students about her. We will miss her tremendously. She took on many roles at Barr-Reeve and gave 100% in everything she did. Not having her here at school will leave a big hole. Miss you Debbie. ”

“ Debbie has been such a blessing to Barr-Reeve school and to the students. She has always kept a smile on her face and been a friend to so many. She has been in so many different positions here that I can't even tell you all. She was a band parent and bus driver for me and we have had some crazy times. I'll never forget the time it poured at Holiday World Festival and we still had to get to the bus to get our instruments out. She was in the front and by the time I got up the shelter house she had all the kids lined out and quiet so I could give instructions. We were soaking wet and she just kept that smile up and told them all to quit griping because it could be worse ...it was lightning yet so we could still ride some of the rides. I will miss your sparkle and your smile the most. Rest in peace Debbie. ”
