“ For about a year before moving to Arizona I preached at the Good Samaritan Retirement Community Center and Aunt Delphia was there every Sunday helping to bring the folks in wheelchairs to the service. Delphia was a servant who cared for people and helped in any way she could, she was a great encouragement to me and I will miss her. Prayers and comfort to the family and friends.

“ I will miss her very much. She was a very good friend of mine. When she came up to play bingo I would always talk to her. When I passed out the mail and if she had mail I would bring it to her room and sit down and talk with her. Very sweet lady.
