“ I havent seen Diane in years, and was sad to hear she passed. I knew her years ago, as she and Kathy Freyberger signed in guests at my 1st wedding. She was the girlfriend of a friend. I remember her being soft spoken and kind. I am sorry for your loss. May you find hope in the Lords promises...Katrina Breitwieser/Buse

“ I worked with Diane at Kimballs. She was a calm and fair person. She didn't share alot of personal stories, but one I still chuckle about is when her mom was getting older and she was helping clean around the house and noticed her bath towels were really worn out. Then she came across some NEW bath towels and Diane asked,"mom why don't you use these new towels?" and her mom said,"I'm saving those I might need them later on." My sympathy to the family. Rest in peace Diane.

Diane and I were friends from our Headstart days to Senior graduation. Many sleepovers during those years. I will cherish the memories. Breaks my heart her life was cut short. My sympathy to Ernie and Donna.
