“ Dear Phil and family, We are so sorry for the loss of your mother and father. They were great people and that certainly is evident in the traits that you have.

We will continue to keep all of you in our thoughts and prayers. May you take comfort that your parents are again together and looking down on you from above with pride and joy in what they created. May God bless all of you! Yours Sincerely, John and Cathy Burger

“ Phil, Mark, Lauren and Courtney - I wish I had magical words to share that would somehow change things. God has a way of timing everything, and just as I told you when I met you at your dad's viewing, I was so glad I made the trip to Indiana in early November to lunch with him. Now, I'll tell you that I'm so glad I met your mom. When I saw you kids...I knew exactly what your mom and dad were like in their good days. Keep living their faith; make their legacy of tenacity live on! Having met them, I tell you that we are committed, more than ever, to keep the battle raging. One day, we will have the cure for this terrible disease. You are in my thoughts and prayers, now and always. Mark Neidig

“ Lauren, If there is anything comforting at all that can come from your loss I believe it is the fact that your mom and dad are once again together. I am so sorry for your loss and my prayer is that God will bring you and your family through this. Please keep your faith and trust that God knows what he is doing. They are at peace now and in a much better place and that should make you smile when you're feeling sad. Take care and God Bless you!

Love,
Lynette
