“ Dear Rita and family, We are so sorry to hear of Don's passing. As you know, he and I spent a lot of time together during our lives, most notably the two years we spent together in the military in Colorado and Germany. May he rest in peace and may you and the family members find solace in the good life he lived, the friends he made, and the good husband and father he was to his family. John and Donna Ackerman

“ I met Don in 1979. He was the most decent and honest man that I ever dealt with in Jasper and the coal mines. If Don told you something, you could take it to the bank. If the lord needs tires, Don will be the first one there with them.
