Mae, you have my condolences on the loss of your husband and best friend. I worked with Don at Kimball and always enjoyed his daily visits. He would often speak of you and his love for you would sparkle in his eyes and his joy. God Bless you and may you always cherish the memories you made together.

“ I worked with Donnie at Kimball for many years and we still to this day talk about 'Donnie Time'. . the point in the day when Donnie would come through and pick up trash. He always had something funny to say and would make us laugh no matter how bad the day had been. That has been many years ago, but we still talk about missing 'Donnie Time'. God bless your family in this loss. He was a fun guy who made the end of our work days a bit brighter.
