“ Golly as the oldest grandchild of Grandpa and Grandma Neukam I have tons of lovely Uncle Donnie memories! I remember when I was the little girl and he was a sassy teenage boy. Tall and straight and handsome! He collected comic books I found in the dining room, either in the end of the buffet or in a corner closet! But they were the first comic books I had ever seen. I remember at butchering time one winter snowy day, he sent me all over the farm looking for the "pressock press!". I remember the day he and your Mother were married and he was tall and handsome and she was so very beautiful. I remember when they built a new home just down the road from Grandpa and Grandma's house. When us kids came to stay with them in the summer I was asked to come and babysit for you girls, Shelly and Holly. Uncle Donnie was always handsome and always fun. I shall always love and remember him that way
