“ I was sending condolences to a friend whose father died around the Fourth of July when by accident I learned your mother had died. I have not followed the obituaries or stayed in touch with past friends remaining in Jasper or who moved away until the last two years, to my regret. I know how hard she worked for you and your father, brother, and sisters. She was always nice to me as was your entire family. I will not presume to say I know how you feel just because I watched my aunt Jeanette (1972), mother (1974), and father (1980) die. No one can know that really, except you, and it is you who will bear that personal pain. I do know that looking at her picture I can see the face, the eyes, and the wry smile I always saw on her face, as I remember her. My sincere condolences, Jane, and to your brother and sisters.

Aunt Dorothy was a special aunt. She always remembered my name! There are many cousins who have lost the last AUNT of that special generation. They all survived the war, but were marked by it. They raised families and the cousins have always been close to each other. Thank you, Aunt Dorothy for being in my life. Tell mom HI from me!

“ I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Dorothy until she and my mom (Marie Kuper) were in the same facility in Indy. What a lovely lady! Always smiling and sharp as a tack! I enjoyed meeting Margaret and Jane and they always shared the Herald with my mom and were always there for their mom! I last saw her in Dec with Margaret and we went to mass together at St A. Now she and her husband are probably leading the band in Heaven! RIP Dorothy and condolences to the Dudine Family. What a blessing you were to your mom! Warm regards, Dave and Linda (Kuper) Kristoff
