“ She was the sweetest lady I have ever met. We met in Wal-Mart one day because she recognized my hospice on the back of shirt. So I knew her daughter Brenda mutually from our hospice. She was the most grateful person and she loved her family and just life itself even though it was hard on her losing Brenda. I know she is smiling down on us all now and reunited with Brenda. I loved her company everytime I went shopping and I am so glad that God brought her into my life.
