“ If there is such a thing as "cyberspace" I believe it gets to Heaven too ~ May my Grandmother "Nana" Rest In Peace. She was a remarkable woman to say the least. She lived her life for God and his glory. With that mind set she didn't have a worry. God has now taken her and an angel she is. Living once again with her kids, not many parents suffer the loss of their children before their own death. So I can only imagine the reunion in heaven and their feeling of each new breath. Knowing that Nana will be guiding us with agape of love. As well as being with her daughters, Lynn & Peg gives me all the comfort I need from the Lord above. I will miss you and the tears will flow. But I also understand it was time for you to go. I am not angry, just sad that you are gone. You had a long life and it was time to move on. I will miss you Nana and will live with all the memories of the past. Rest assured it is "forever" that these memories will last. Your time on Earth is now done. Fly high with your angels "Peg & Lynn" as you have now all become "one". Give Mom a Hug & Kiss from me please and enjoy your eternal life! I love you Nana ~ R.I.P. ~ Until we meet again 💔💔

Edna was a wonderful friend for 37 plus years. She worked for me a few years in the 80s. She was always chipper and very creative. In 1992 she decorated a Christmas tree as I did not have the time or energy to do it. She loved Jesus and allowed the Holy Spirit of God to fill her and make her a blessing to many. God carried her for nearly 40 years despite personal sadness. Some day I will see her again.
