“ To the Yaggie Family, I don't have the words to explain how sorry I am for your great loss I extend my deepest sympathy. Dad, as I called him, was always so friendly and kind to us. I am so thankful to him for bringing Janet and Family to my life. Know you're in the hearts and thoughts of others so it may help you and yours through this time of sorrow. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. Extending deepest sympathy for you in your loss.

And hoping that comfort and peace may come to you. At this time of sorrow, may these truths sustain you. Your loved one will always be as close as a memory, and the God of all comfort will always be as close as a prayer. Words, however kind, can't mend your heartache: but those who care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind. May you find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. Praying for friends and Family can comfort you, and have faith to uphold you, and loving memories to help you smile again!!!

“ To The Yaggi Family, We go way back, our families. From the now gone JC Lorey Furniture Store and the old Yaggi's, to the ongoing family friendships, it is with heavy heart I extend my deepest sympathy. Coon, and Kenny too, was so friendly and kind to my 'kids' when they were growing up and eating at Yaggi's, on our many visits to Jasper over the years. They still want to eat there when they come to Jasper and Speed, Don and I are still very good friends, even across the miles. I treasure these friendships. Prayers and Sympathy. Sarah and Kurt, Kris, Ed, Rick, Muncie IN
