“ June, Bobbie and I are very sorry for your and your family’s loss. My early memories with Ed was riding bicycles between Aunt Setty’s home and my house on Truman Road. What a good time that was. Even more fun was going fishing with Ed and my dad. Seems like we always caught fish or the back of someone’s head. But most importantly, it was my great honor to be in your wedding in January, 1969.

*Love and best regards,
