

Edward J. Schroering

September 21, 1945 - May 1, 2015

Edward J. Schroering, ABILENE, TX —Edward J. Schroering, age 69, formerly of Jasper, passed away peacefully on Friday, May 1, 2015 at Hendrick Medical Center, Abilene, TX.

Edward was born on September 21, 1945 in Jasper, Indiana to Martin and Frances (Seeger) Schroering. He was loving and proud of his daughters Stacie Rocha of Evansville, IN, Gretchen Schroering of Honolulu, HI and Kirsten Ellsworth of Abilene, TX, his son Franz Schroering of High Point, NC, and his two granddaughters, Hannah and Maliyah Rocha. He is also survived by his eight siblings, Elfrieda Merkley, Lucille Alcorn, Rosemary Rivers, Alice Schroering, Norbert Schroering, Henry Schroering, Ray Schroering, and Martin Schroering as well as, many loving nieces, nephews, and friends.

Edward was a passionate man who graduated in 1978 from University of Evansville with an associate degree in Fine Arts and served as an apprentice under Master Artist Walter Houchstrasser at Jasper Cabinet Company, before becoming a Master Artist of the fine art of furniture decoration. He was well known in the furniture design business and held the title of Design and Decoration Artist and Lead Furniture Design and Decoration Manager for Karges, Whites and Knightbridge fine furniture companies before owning his own design and decoration businesses, Rivera Designs and S&T Designs of High Point, NC. Ed also served honorably for six years in the Indiana Army National Guard as an Indirect Fire Infantryman.

After 40 years, Ed retired and moved back home to Jasper, IN where he enjoyed spending time with his family, cooking, fishing and drawing before moving to Texas with his daughter.

A graveside funeral will be held 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 2015 at St. Celestine Church followed by a family gathering at his sister's home. “ *Best furniture painter I ever met!
He painted our decorative mirrors for our company, Colonial Traditions, in Mebane, NC.
We have many examples of his work.
