“ Edwina loved to tell the story of when uncle Guido brought her to meet his parents Cleo and Annie Seaton and I ran to tell them she had red hair.
Lots of good memories over on the Seaton farm.

“ We are saddened to learn of Ms. Seaton's passing. Our family loved coming to the Roberson-Seaton reunions each year because her and Guido brought the best food for our dinners (especially the Polish sausages our mother-in-law, Ms. Anna May looked so forward to). Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you during this difficult time.

“ It was sad to hear of the passing of Edwina. My earliest memories of her are when we visited uncle Cleo Seaton for dinner in Crawford County. It was a joy to dance with her at one of our Seaton reunions in about 2006--she shared with me how much she enjoyed dancing. I'm sure your memories of Edwina will keep her alive in your hearts. God Bless.
